Welcome to Privilege Club

For every dollar you invest in consumables and wear parts, you will earn one Privilege Point.

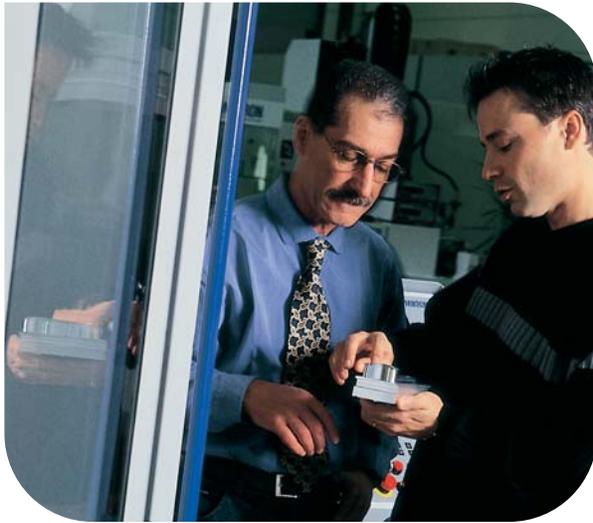

Agie Charmilles has long been a recognized market leader in providing world-class service and support. To raise the bar and exceed expectations yet again, we have established Privilege Club. The first program in the industry of its kind, Privilege Club rewards customers with valuable exclusive benefits.

All Agie Charmilles customers are immediately eligible to participate in the program through automatic enrollment. Welcome to Privilege Club. We hope you're ready for the special treatment.

A New Standard in Customer Satisfaction

How will you redeem your Privilege Points?

The Privilege Points you earn as an Agie Charmilles customer can be used in a variety of ways, ensuring that you receive the highest possible benefit from the program. Your existing and future points can be used toward:

- + Options, accessories and upgrades
- + Operator training
- + Preventive maintenance contracts

Meeting your expectations is not enough. At Agie Charmilles, we know that you face unprecedented challenges and competition. That's why we are constantly evolving to provide you with benefits that go beyond what you have come to expect from a machine tool company. Privilege Club not only rewards you with points to use towards future purchases of goods and services, but also provides tools to maximize your efficiency. From your Privilege Club Web page, you will be able to access a wealth of information, ranging from technical data on machines to customer workshops designed to help you get the most out of your equipment.

Privilege Club Contact

By completing the quick and easy registration process, you will gain secure access to your full account and a wealth of information, including:
